Change of Individual Name (Statutory Declaration)

This declaration may only be used for name changes as a result of holders reverting from a married name to a former name.

A Change of Name

I do solemnly and sincerely declare that I elected to be known by my former name:

from the date / / and that I am one and the same as the name listed currently on the register. There has been no change to the beneficial ownership and I request my full and correct name, as stated above, be recorded on the register. I have attached:

A certified copy of my marriage certificate.

Certified copies of 2 forms of photo identification, one in the name as it appears on the register AND the other in the former name.

And I make this solemn declaration:
